EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Although we are the progeny of Param Purush, the human mind can move in two directions — towards the finite or towards the infinite; towards permanent bliss or towards illusory happiness. As we have passed through so many animal lives in the process to attain the human life, the material objects of enjoyment easily drag our minds towards illusory happiness. But illusory happiness only brings us temporary relief before throwing us into the dark pit of misery. Many so-called scholars are obsessed with their petty prestige, but one day that sense of prestige is bound to crumble. But permanent bliss is infinite. It has no beginning and no end; it is an unbroken flow of pure and serene bliss, stretching from 'beginninglessness' to endlessness.

People who are under the illusory spell of avidya and maya, leave the benevolent path of permanent bliss and rush headlong towards the deceptively alluring illusory happiness. But illusory happiness, after giving them only temporary happiness, like a flash of light, will throw them into the darkness of despondency, and they will stand like the scorched shell of a tree struck by lightning in the desert, lamenting the endless drought. Where there is a longing for physicality, there is no absolute Consciousness, and where there is Consciousness there is no longing for physicality. Hence, enlightened people will choose the benevolent path of permanent bliss for the highest fulfilment of human life. All other entities are unreal ... The name of the Supreme Entity is the sweetest. Wise are they who take His name.

Young heiress wants to donate 90% of her inherits

Ludwigshafen: Marlene Engelhorn is not your average millionaire. At age 29, she has more money than she knows what to do with, so she has decided to give away 90 to 95 percent of her inheritance of tens of millions of dollars.

Marlene is the granddaughter of 94-year-old Traudl Engelhorn-Vechiatto, a member of the famed German industrial family whose patriarch, Friedrich Engelhorn, founded the chemical giant BASF in 1865. Traudl's brother-in-law, Curt, ran the family business until 1997, when it was sold to Roche for about 11 billion dollars. At the time of the sale, Marlene's grandmother received approximately 2.45 billion dollars, a veritable fortune that ballooned to 4.2 billion dollars, at the time of her death. Marlene Engelhorn now stands to inherit tens of millions of dollars, but she doesn't want it. She said that she wants to work like others and earn.

The most expensive house in the world

Via Veneto: Located on a hill in the heart of Rome and featuring the only ceiling mural ever painted by the Italian Baroque old master Caravaggio, Villa Aurora is widely regarded as the world's most expensive house.

The 30,000-square-foot, 16th-century villa is located a short walk from the famous Via Veneto, home to some of Rome's best hotels, and close to the iconic Piazza di Spagna and the ancient Porta Pinciana. Originally a hunting lodge, the villa is all that remains of a 30-hectare complex owned by Italy's Ludovisi noble family, who gave the country numerous diplomats, patrons of the arts, and even a Pope. Today, Villa Aurora finds itself at the heart of a legal battle and an Italian Court has ruled that it should be sold at auction. The price set for the property is high that no one seems interested. 471 million Euros is the asking price

Heritage lethargy, lack of pride are actual banes, NOT funds

Sir,

This refers to the news item titled 'Collapsing of multiple heritage structures causes concern' (Star of Mysore dated Oct.22) showing pictures of six heritage structures. The issue has finally galvanised the Government to take note of the sad state of affairs.

The result is that it has jolted the Government to wake up to the all-round deterioration of hundreds of heritage structures. This has also activated the District Heritage Committee and the Department of Archaeology, Museums and Heritage.

As per the report in SOM dated Oct. 24, a survey has begun to grade 131 heritage structures within MCC limits while it is stated that there are more than 500 heritage structures including those owned by the Government and private parties across the district. This is the reason as to why Mysuru is called the Heritage City. It is not as if successive Governments have not been aware of the situation but the sad part is that the Government has no pride in safeguarding the city's royal heritage.

For example, two classic cases of damage suffered by Lansdowne Building in 2012 and Devaraja Market in 2016 and citizens are too well aware of its chequered history marked by procrastination, the drama of appointing committees, escaping responsibilities, lack of funds, etc. The other important royal monument is the Jayalakshmi Vilas Mansion that is languishing in neglect. It is a magnificent structure with more than 150 pillars of Greek architecture going to seed. It looks like an abandoned building with the windows left wide open.

The pictures above are a testimony of its neglect and the imminent danger of its collapse. The usual excuse is lack of funds.

True, the order of funds required is substantial but there is no attempt to explore the possibility of raising funds. For example, the Central Government may be approached as a special case or Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) funds can be tapped or even the Indian diaspora can be approached.

Heritage of lethargy, lack of will and lack of pride are the banes and not the funds. If there is real feeling for heritage, there are avenues. Can we hope for some action by the powers that be?

PM Narendra Modi to flag off
Vande Bharat Express on Nov. 11
South India's first semi-high-speed train to run between Mysuru and Chennai via Bengaluru

Modi

Bengaluru, Oct. 28 (Agencies)- Prime Minister Narendra Modi will visit Karnataka on Nov. 11 and flag off South India's first semi-high-speed train Vande Bharat Express between Mysuru and Chennai via Bengaluru. According to a statement by the Karnataka CM's office, PM Modi will inaugurate several other projects. The Vande Bharat Express will run between Chennai and Mysuru via Bengaluru.

This will also be the first Vande Bharat train for Karnataka which is set to go to Legislative Assembly elections next year. The newer version of Vande Bharat Express trains can reach a speed of 100 km/hr in 52 seconds, and run at a maximum speed of 180 kmph, weighs about 392 tonnes instead of 430 tons of the older version of the same train, and is reckoned to be 15 percent more energy efficient.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai held a video conference yesterday regarding the arrangements for various programmes to be held in Bengaluru on Nov. 11. According to the statement, Bommai inspected every detail of the function and directed the authorities concerned that the functions must not cause hardship for the citizens.

The CM said that PM Modi will arrive at HAL Airport on Nov. 11 at 10 am and fly to Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) for the inauguration of the much-awaited Terminal 2 of the airport. It was developed spending Rs. 5,000 crore and has the capacity to handle 2.5 crore passengers a year, said an official release.

On the same day, Modi will unveil a 108-feet bronze statue of Kempegowda at the airport. Called the "Statue of Prosperity", it will reflect the progress Bengaluru made under the vision of Kempegowda, the founder of Bengaluru, Minister for IT/BT and Higher Education Dr. C.N. Ashwathnarayan said. The Government has decided to develop a theme park at KIA spread over 23 acres.

The theme park will have the saplings of trees mentioned in the Ramayana and Mahabharata. The airport will recycle water and there will be low consumption of power.

Later, the PM will address a public meeting, Bommai said.

Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma, CM's Principal Secretary N. Manjunath Prasad and senior officials of various departments, the Indian Railways and the KIA attended the virtual meeting.

The ruling BJP is preparing itself to capitalise on the event as Vokkaligas revere Kempegowda as their tallest figure and benevolent ruler of Bengaluru. Vokkaligas is the second largest after Lingayats and hence commands a lot of political clout and BJP leaders are hopeful the unveiling of Kempegowda statue will please the community members.

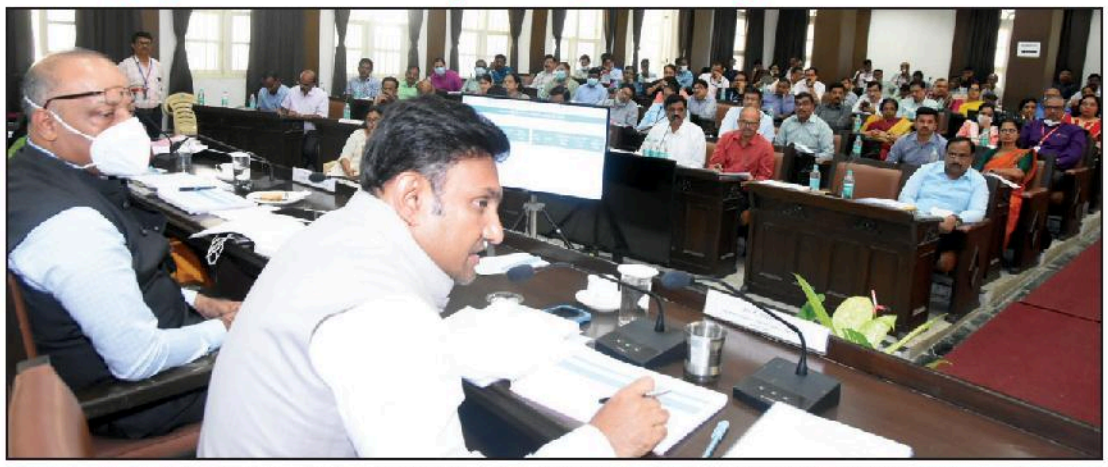
Ensure efficient setting up of Namma Clinics

Health Minister says 40 Namma Clinics in the pipeline for Mysuru, Kodagu districts



Health and Family Welfare Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar chairing a Divisional-level Progress Review Meeting of the Health Department at Zilla Panchayat Hall in city yesterday.

Mysuru, Oct. 28 (SBD&BCT)- Initiatives like Namma Clinics help strengthen the State's healthcare system and the Health Department must prioritise establishment of such clinics in Mysuru as outlined by the Government, said Health and Family Welfare Minister Dr. K. Sudhakar.

Chairing a Divisional-level Progress Review Meeting of the Health Department at Zilla Panchayat Hall yesterday, the Minister said that Namma Clinic is an ambitious programme launched by the State and more and more awareness campaigns must be taken up to publicise the clinics so that people come there to avail medical treatment, he added.

The aim is to provide better health services to the ever-increasing population and considerable priority is being given by the Government to public health. In all, 438 Namma Clinics will begin operations by Dec. 15 across Karnataka.

Each Namma Clinic is equipped with a doctor, nurse, lab technician and a group D employee. The appointment of 160 doctors and remaining staff are already completed for the 243 Namma Clinics in Bengaluru, he said.

The Namma Clinics are being established in Government buildings and rented buildings which have an area of 1,000-1,200 sq.ft and priority must be given to establishing such clinics on the ground floor for easy access, he added. These Namma Clinics will also create awareness about Yoga, Pranayama, meditation and food habits, said Minister Dr. Sudhakar.

As per the guidelines, Primary Health Centres in accordance with the population exist in rural areas. However, there is a shortfall of Government healthcare centres in urban areas to cater to the population. "We have sanctioned additional Namma Clinics so as to ensure one clinic per Ward in case of expansion. In Mysuru and Kodagu, 40 more Namma Clinics are in the pipeline," he added.

The Ayushman Bharat Health and Wellness Centres or Namma Clinics are a new initiative to enhance accessibility to healthcare among urban poor. The Clinics will cater to the health of the urban poor, especially people falling below the poverty line and those residing in huts and city slums. It will also focus on creating awareness about Government healthcare schemes.

Patients can get free consultations, free medicines and free lab tests and a total of 14 lab tests will be made available at Namma Clinics. In case the patient needs further treatments at secondary and tertiary care facilities, they will also be provided free referral. Facilities for tele-consultations with specialists will also be created to expedite the diagnosis and treatment, he added.

It will help screen diseases, especially non-communicable and lifestyle diseases at an early stage thereby making treatment much quicker and mitigating life-threatening complications that occur at advanced stages of the diseases, the Minister added.

Additional Chief Secretary of Health Department T.K. Anil Kumar, Health Commissioner D. Randeep, Mission Director, National Health Mission Dr. Arundhati Chandrashekar, Director Dr. Indumathi, Divisional Associate Director Dr. Rajeshwari Devi and other officers were present.

Safety: Maharani's College Principal dispels anxiety

Mysuru, Oct. 28 (MTY&BCT)- To dispel fears among the students of Maharani's Science College following the collapse of the dilapidated Chemistry Laboratory recently on JLB Road causing extensive damage, College Principal Dr. D. Ravi held a meeting with students yesterday and asked them to attend classes without any apprehensions.

Speaking at the College premises, the Principal said that many students, parents and their relatives have expressed fears over the bad condition of the buildings and how the classes are being held inside such buildings knowing well that they are unsafe inside.

Dr. Ravi said that all measures have been taken by the College administration and the University of Mysore to ensure the safety of the students. "The building crashed due to incessant rains and only a part of the building was dilapidated and it collapsed. It is wrong to assume that the entire college is dilapidated," he said.

Alternative arrangements have been made to conduct the Chemistry Laboratory at the new building and as such, students must attend the classes without any fear, he assured. A team of engineers from PWD and heritage experts have inspected the college buildings and have certified that the structures were safe.

They will submit formal reports and the students, parents and their relatives must not pay heed to rumours, he requested.

Will establish Kempegowda University if JD(S) is voted to power: HDK

Bengaluru, Oct. 28 (KMS&DM)- Asserting that a University in the name of Nadaprabhu Kempegowda will be established at Magadi in Bengaluru rural district if the JD(S) is voted to power in next year's Assembly polls, former Chief Minister and JD(S) Legislative Party leader H.D. Kumaraswamy (HDK) has called upon party workers to ensure JD(S) victory in at least a dozen seats in Bengaluru city.

Kumaraswamy

He was addressing party workers after formally launching the party's ambitious 'Pancharatna Yatra' by performing Puja at the ancient Gavigangadhareshwara temple on Mysuru road here yesterday.

Pointing out that the 'Panchratna Yatra' will start on a full-scale with the holding of a massive rally at Kurudumale in Mulbagal taluk of Kolar district on Nov.1 marking Kannada Rajyotsava, Kumaraswamy said that today (Oct. 28), a special Puja will be performed at the famed Annamma temple in the heart of Bengaluru city, following which a symbolic rally will be taken out in Gandhinagar Constituency.

Noting that the rally will go on for 35 days in the first phase, he said that 'Grama Vastavya' (village stay) too will be part of the rally. He further said that it was the JD(S) which first announced reservation to many marginalised sections of the society.

Listing out his achievements when he was the Chief Minister two times, Kumaraswamy said that both the National parties — Congress and BJP — do not have any real concerns or commitment for the welfare of the people.

Lashing out at the Congress and BJP, the JD(S) leader said that the Bharat Jodo Yatra being taken out by the Congress will not help in understanding problems of the people.

Taking a dig at the BJP's 'Janasankalpa Yatra,' Kumaraswamy wondered how it would benefit the BJP when the party had failed to deliver in the first instance.

Citing the example of neighbouring Telangana's growth model where the TRS is in power, Kumaraswamy said that his party will launch 'Raitha Bandhu' scheme in Karnataka too on the lines of Telangana, which is of real help to the farming community.

He also announced the salient features of the party's other future plans if it comes to power.

H.D. Deve Gowda re-elected as JD(S) National President

Bengaluru, Oct. 28 (KMS&DM)- Former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda was re-elected as the National President of Janata Dal-Secular (JD-S) at the Party's National Executive held here yesterday.

H.D. Deve Gowda

The party delegates from 13 States, Kerala's Energy Minister Krishnan Kutty and MLAs from Kerala and other top leaders of the party from different States attended the National Executive, according to sources.

Siddharamaiah likely to contest from Kolar

Bengaluru, Oct. 28 (KMS&DM)- With the Assembly elections just a few months away, former CM and senior Congress leader Siddharamaiah is likely to contest from Kolar Assembly Constituency.

Siddharamaiah

A Congress delegation led by former Assembly Speaker Ramesh Kumar met Siddharamaiah, who is the current Opposition leader in the State capital Bengaluru on Thursday and urged him to contest from Kolar, to which the senior Congress leader is said to have responded positively.

Siddharamaiah, the sitting MLA from Badami in Bagalkot district, was toying with the idea of contesting from any of the six seats — Badami, Kolar, Varuna, Chamarajapet in Benglauru, Chikkanayakanahalli and Koppal, for sometime now. But after the meeting with Ramesh Kumar, Siddharamaiah is said to be seriously considering to contest from Kolar Assembly segment which has a sizeable population of Kuruba community to which he belongs and minorities. Also, the sitting JD(S) MLA from Kolar K. Srinivas Gowda, who has stayed away from his party, too has appealed the former CM to contest from Kolar, for which he is willing to extend all support.

Meanwhile, in another development, several Congress party workers from Kolar arrived in Mysuru this morning (Oct. 28) and met Siddharamaiah when he was on a morning walk at a park near Vivekananda Circle, in order to convince him to contest from Kolar only.

Puneeth's wife prays for late husband's last movie

Offers special pujas at Nimishamba Temple and Sri Chamundeshwari Temple

Srirangapatna, Oct. 28 (Vinay Karekura&BCT)- Late movie icon Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar's Gandhada Gudi, which is a docu-feature on Karnataka's wildlife, opened in cinemas this morning and to pray for the success for the actor's last movie on screen, his wife Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar visited the Nimishamba Temple in Srirangapatna and Sri Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill in Mysuru.

Special prayers were offered by Ashwini and she was accompanied by Director Amoghavarsha.

The Nimishamba Temple is located at Ganjam and Puneeth Rajkumar was an ardent devotee of the Goddess.

It is one of the famous temples dedicated to Goddess Parvathi and was constructed by Raja Wadiyar 400 years ago. Located on a higher elevation on the banks of River Cauvery, the Nimishamba Temple — where the idol of the Goddess is carved along with the Sri Chakra — is governed by the Muzrai Department.

The deity gets the name Nimishamba as she grants wishes within a minute (Nimisha in Kannada). According to family sources, the day Puneeth decided to shoot for Gandhada Gudi, he had been to Nimishamba Temple and had prayed for the movie's success. Following the wishes of her late husband, Ashwini too visited the temple and offered special prayers today.

Temple Chief Priest Suryanarayana Bhat recalled the association of Puneeth Rajkumar with the Temple and said that he was a regular visitor there. Even when Dr. Rajkumar was kidnapped by forest brigand Veerappan, Puneeth had come to the Temple with Parvathamma Rajkumar and had prayed for his release. "Parvathamma had dropped a mangalasutra into the Hundi and had prayed to the Goddess," he recalled.

"Puneeth Rajkumar used to come here whenever his new cinema hit the screens and today, it is sad that he is not amidst us. Shivarajkumar had taken a vow in the Temple and accordingly he donated a gold necklace to the Goddess through Ashwini," the priest said.

Director Amoghavarsha said that his journey with Puneeth Rajkumar began on Oct. 29 and it has been two years. "From now, it is the film of the fans and crowd who I am sure will shower love as always. It is the last story the legendary actor has given to us and we must preserve the State's natural wealth," he said.

After the rituals at Nimishamba, Ashwini and Amoghavarsha proceeded towards the Chamundeshwari Temple atop Chamundi Hill. She told the media waiting outside that she has come to the Goddess to seek blessings for the success of her husband's last movie.

Fans welcome Gandhada Gudi

While the docu-drama released at around 1,500 screens in the State a day before Puneeth's first death anniversary (Oct. 29), in Mysuru, the movie was released in Sangam Theatre and all the multiplexes where the first show began as early as 6.30 am. As it has a runtime of around 1 hour and 38 minutes, theatres and multiplexes are screening six shows per day on a single screen.

As the screening began, whistles and hoots and calls of 'Power Star Puneeth Rajkumar' and 'Appu' literally drowned out the first few moments of the late actor's dream project and there was happiness all around at being able to see the late actor one last time on the big screen.

Cut-outs of Puneeth Rajkumar have been placed in front of the screening venues and the shows are booked for the entire next week. Tickets got sold out within minutes of the opening for online booking.

Videos with people welcoming the movie with firecrackers and flags with the late actor's face, fans pouring milk on his cut-outs and captioned 'Appu Lives On' flooded the social media.

Produced under the banners of PRK Productions and Mudskipper, Gandhada Gudi stars Puneeth Rajkumar and the award-winning filmmaker J.S. Amoghavarsha, in his directorial. Both Puneeth and Amoghavarsha, also a conservationist, embark on a journey through Karnataka's rich biodiversity and unravel the vibrancy through a set of riveting first-hand experiences.

"The movie is a glorious exploration of Karnataka's vast and rich physical heritage and Puneeth Rajkumar's stunning creativity. The movie celebrates both and the fans are naturally elated. While Kantaara received good response two days after its release, Gandhada Gudi is getting a huge fan following from Day 1," C.R. Hanumanth, who owns DRC Cinemas, told Star of Mysore.

The title Gandhada Gudi, which means the 'temple of sandalwoods', holds a special place in Kannada culture. It was the title of late acting legend Dr. Rajkumar's and Dr. Vishnuvardhan's 1973 blockbuster, which also emphasised the importance of protecting the sanctity and the wealth of Karnataka's jungles.

End recommendation culture for Awards:
Safai Karmachari Commission Chairman

Mysuru, Oct.28 (MTY&DM)- Regretting the growing trend of applying and seeking recommendation for getting awards, Karnataka Safai Karmachari Commission Chairman M. Shivanna said that the time has come to do away with the culture of recommendation.

He was speaking after inaugurating the 6th anniversary of Mysuru Unit of Kannada Janapada Parishat (KJP) and World Tribal and Folklore Day celebrations, organised at Rotary Hall on JLB Road here recently.

Observing that it is not correct on the part of aspirants to apply for awards and send recommendation letters for getting them, Shivanna said that the practice of Government inviting applications for conferment of Rajyotsava Award too is not correct.

Maintaining that several aspirants had come to him seeking recommendation letters for Rajyotsava Award, he said that the Government should drop the practice of inviting applications. The Government itself should identify the achievers and confer them awards, he opined.

Recalling that he was a part of Dr. Rajkumar's Dhanya Milana programme when he was Kannada and Culture Minister about 20 years ago, Shivanna said that he also got an opportunity to interact with a few noted actors while taking part in several other programmes.

Lauding the Kannada Janapada Parishat for identifying artists, he said that recognition will surely help the achievers.

Stressing on the need for promoting and nurturing folklore in order to save our rich culture, he said that Prime Minister Modi was working in that direction.

Referring to the welfare of Pourakarmikas, Shivanna said that the process of regularisation of service of Pourakarmikas is underway. Pointing out that he has recommended the Chief Minister for regularisation of service of Pourakarmikas, he said that 11,133 Pourakarmikas will be regularised in the first phase. There are plans to regularise another 50,000 Pourakarmikas across the State too in the coming days, he added.

Parishat's District Unit President Kyatanahalli Prakash said that the Unit was established in 2016 and since then it has been identifying achievers from folk field. The Folk Brigade, which is an associate organisation, is also working in this regard, he added.

Art patron M.S. Kumar, in his keynote address, bemoaned the onslaught of western music on our rich heritage and culture. Pointing out that veteran folk scholars have successfully prevented the spreading of western culture, he stressed that the Parishat should grow further for saving and sustaining our folk traditions.

Veeragase artiste from Nanjangud Malkundi Basavanna, Sobane singer Madamma of Yaraganahalli in Mysuru taluk, Kamsale artiste Mahadevaiah of Muradagalli, Dollu Kunitha artiste Nikhil of Vinayakanagar, Tribal artiste Jomamma of Aanemala in Saragur taluk, J.D. Dr. Sudhakar added that Medical Colleges have been asked to meet the target of user fees by the end of this financial year. Highlighting the measures taken by the Government for enhancing resources and revenues of Government Medical Colleges and improvement of their infrastructure he said that the colleges have been asked to make full use of reimbursement being made by Suvarna Arogya Suraksha Trust.

Also, colleges have been directed to submit a proposal on starting dialysis service in their attached hospitals, he added. Instructing the Health Department authorities to hold monthly check-up camps, the Minister said that the Department doctors and staff have directed to have a complete understanding of revised State and Central Government health schemes for their effective implementation covering a large population.

Referring to the plea made by MP Pratap Simha seeking sanction of Rs. 50 crore for setting up a Kidwai Memorial Cancer Hospital in PKTB Sanatorium premises on KRS Road, Dr. Sudhakar said that the proposal would be placed at the next Cabinet meeting for approval.

Replying to a question on the status of Multi-Specialty Hospital and Trauma Care Centre established adjacent to PKTB Sanatorium, the Minister said that though the building blocks have been constructed and civil works completed, they have remained mostly unused for want of doctors and other staff.

"The Government will make this important hospital available for patient service by appointing specialised doctors, nurses, para-medical and other supporting staff soon," he assured adding that the Government is taking all necessary steps for improving public health care.

District Health Officer Dr. K.H. Prasad, District Vector-Borne Diseases Control and Food Control Officer Dr. Chidambara, Mysore Medical College and Research Institute Dean and Director Dr. K.R. Dakshayani and others were present.

Prime Minister's Matsya Sampada Yojana

Government plans to increase fish trade to 21 MMT

Mysuru, Oct. 28 (PM&DM)- Stating that the current fish trade in the country stands at 14.76 Million Metric Tonnes (MMT), Deputy Director of Fisheries Training Centre at Kabini in H.D. Kote taluk, Mahadev said that the Government has plans to increase this number to 21 MMT in the next five years under the Prime Minister's Matsya Sampada Yojana, a scheme aimed to bring about ecologically healthy, economically viable and socially inclusive development of the fisheries sector of the country.

He was speaking at the one-day special training programme on 'Pisciculture and Government facilities for fishermen' for CEOs and office-bearers of Fishermen Co-operative Societies from Mysuru district, organised under the joint aegis of Karnataka Co-operative Federation, Karnataka State Fisheries Co-operative Federation, District Co-operative Union and Co-operation Department, at the Mysuru District Co-operative Union Auditorium on Chamaraja Double road here recently.

Pointing out that Karnataka accounts for 1 MMT out of the 14.76 MMT of fish production in the country, Mahadev said that the Union Ministry of Fisheries is implementing the Prime Minister's Matsya Sampada Yojana scheme across the country at a cost of Rs. 20,050 crore in the 2021-25 period. Stressing on the need for getting prepared for effective implementation of this massive scheme, he said that fish is considered as a nutritious food. Maintaining that fish consumption in the country is witnessing a rise every year due to its nutritional value, he opined that fish breeding and pisciculture is far more easier and profitable than other forms of dairying.

Maintaining that lakes are being directly let out for fishing to Fishermen Co-operative Societies, Mahadev said that other water bodies under Government control are leased through e-tenders. Emphasising on the need for promoting inland fisheries, he said that fishermen societies of coastal areas are far more organised and this should be emulated by Inland Fisheries Societies for better earnings.

Earlier, Karnataka State Fisheries Co-operative Federation Chairman M.N. Siddalingaraju inaugurated the programme.

Karnataka Co-operative Federation Managing Director Arali Suryakanth, District Co-operative Union President H.V. Rajeev, who is also a former MUDA Chairman, Directors M.B. Manjegowda, Siddegowda and Y. Bhyrappa, Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies G.R. Vijaykumar and others were present.

Opposition to Global Investors Meet

Farmers to stage demo in Bengaluru on Nov. 2

Mysuru, Oct.28 (RKB&DM)- Strongly opposing the 3-day Global Investors Meet (GIM) at Bengaluru (Nov.2 to 4), farmers under the banner of Samyukta Horata-Karnataka will stage a massive demonstration at Freedom Park in Bengaluru on Nov.2.

Addressing a press meet here on Tuesday, the Organisation Convenor and KRRS President Badagalapura Nagendra alleged that the GIM is being held to give our agricultural land, water and other resources to Corporates and MNCs under the pretext of investment and job creation.

Maintaining that the GIM is nothing but an act of slavery as only Corporates and MNCs benefit out of it, he termed the GIM as a tool for looting precious lands, water and other natural resources.

Contending that the Government is holding GIM at a time when elections are round the corner, Nagendra alleged that it is a Government ploy that aims to create an illusion of jobs and opportunities for youths. But the fact is that events like GIM will only help Coporates, agencies and agents, who benefit a lot from such events, he argued. As such, the Samyukta Horata Karnataka is holding a massive convention at Bengaluru on Nov.2 in order to register protest against GIM, he said adding that thousands of farmers from across the State will take part.

KRRS office-bearers Hosur Kumar, Hoskote Basavaraj and P. Marankaiah were present at the press meet.

Building Construction Workers Conference in Kunigal on Oct.30

More than 300 from District to attend

Mysuru, Oct.28 (RKB&TRR)- The Karnataka Construction and other Unorganised Workers Association (Karnataka Karmika Sangha) is organising a conference of workers at Kunigal in Tumakuru district on Oct.30 to draw Government's attention towards the problems that are being faced by the workers. More than 300 workers from Mysuru district are attending the conference of building construction and other unorganised sector workers being held at Kunigal's GKBMS School Open Air Theatre, said District President of Construction Workers Association L. Krishna.

"The Conference is being held to draw Government's attention to the various problems being faced by the workers like inflation, expensive raw materials, dual policies of Labour Department, collection of exorbitant fees of Rs.500 to Rs. 1,000 at Common Services Centres (CSCs) to register workers' and also to urge the Government to provide various facilities announced by it without much delay. Many construction workers, auto drivers, street vendors and other workers are participating in the proposed conference," added Krishna.

Science is an integral part of Spirituality: ADC

Mysuru, Oct.28 (SPN&TRR) - Additional Deputy Commissioner (ADC) Dr. B.S. Manjunathaswamy has said that Science has become an integral part of Spirituality and there is a need to build a society which is inclusive of Spirituality.

He was speaking at 'Belakina Habba-2022' organised by Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya at its premises in city recently.

"Before the launch of a Satellite, scientists at Indian Space Research Organisation (ISRO) will perform puja either at Tirupati or local temples and check for Rahukala and Gulikala. The scientists are continuing this habit despite opposition from some people. Seeing this, I am of the opinion that Science is a part of Spiritualism," he opined.

Stating that Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya branches are spread across the country, the ADC said that special lectures are being held daily in these branches. "The task of bringing back present youths, who have found a life elsewhere forgetting spirituality, back to spirituality should be started by the spiritual centres of Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya," he suggested.

"Many reports being published in the newspaper indicates that Seers are forgetting their spiritual lives and are inviting danger. This trait could be a reason for the present youths to stay away from spirituality. If the situation continues like this, youths and general public will be in a state of confusion about deciding who should be their role model," he said.

"At Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya, they have a created a situation to compare spirituality and science. During Deepavali we light lamps and simultaneously switch on electric lights. This means that even in society, there is a need to strike a balance between spiritualism and social life. Before joining Government service, I too had an inclination towards spiritualism and seek spiritualism even now when I need mental peace," said the ADC.

Chief Superintendent of Central Prisons Mysuru, K.C. Roopashri said that we all should respond to the problems faced by the society and lead our associates from darkness to the path of light. "In this direction, Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya office-bearers are continuing their efforts. Public should also join hands in their mission," she added.

Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Ishwariya Vishwa Vidyalaya Media Head Rajayogi B.K. Karunaji, Mysuru Sub-division Convenor Rajayogi Lakshmiji and Mayor Shivakumar were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Mnemonic

Pronunciation: nih-MAH-nik.
Meaning: Mnemonic means "assisting or intended to assist memory" or "of or relating to a technique for improving one's memory."
Origin: Need a mnemonic device to remember how to spell mnemonic? Although the word's pronunciation begins with an n sound, the spelling begins with an m, as in memory. There are very few English words that start this way (mnestic and mnioid are two others), and as with similar Latin and Greek borrowings such as pneumonia, we retained the double initial consonant but not the pronunciation. In addition to its adjectival use, mnemonic is also a noun used to refer to a mnemonic device, such as the famous—or infamous—spelling dictum "I before E, except after C," which isn't consistently helpful.
Example: "Restoring Indigenous place names restores mnemonic and spiritual connections among place, culture and ancestral knowledge." — Bonnie McGill

THE ODD WORD

Mabble
To wrap up.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

As mad as a March hare

Meaning: To be 'As mad as a March hare' is to be completely mad.
Origin: Hares have long been seen to behave excitedly in March, which is their mating season. Lewis Carroll is among many who have alluded to this behaviour in stories — Alice's Adventures in Wonderland:
"The March Hare ... as this is May, it won't be raving mad - at least not so mad as it was in March." More recently this behaviour has been questioned and it is now thought that hares behave oddly - boxing, jumping etc. - throughout their breeding season, which extends over several months. Be that as it may, March hares have that 'mad' reputation, which will surely stay with them.
Carroll didn't originate the expression 'As mad as a march hare'. He needed some mad characters for his story and he used one which had for centuries been referred to as mad - the March hare.
The first record of the belief in hares' madness, or in this case their brainlessness, was circa 1500, in Blowbol's Test reprinted by W. C. Hazlitt in Remains Early Popular Poetry of England, 1864: "Thanne [th]ey begyn to swere and to stare, And be as braynles as a Marshe hare."

QUOTE BOX

No great mind has ever existed without a touch of madness. — Aristotle
